Christopher Menkhaus was just a boy when he and his family were forced to flee their home in Bosnia during the Bosnian War. They spent years living in refugee camps, before finally being granted asylum in America.

Christopher was determined to make a new life for himself and his family in America. He worked hard to learn English and get a good education. He also started farming, using the skills he had learned from his father.

Christopher's farm is now a thriving business. He grows a variety of fruits and vegetables, which he sells at local farmers' markets and to restaurants. He also teaches farming classes to other refugees.

Christopher's story is an inspiring example of the power of the human spirit. He has overcome incredible adversity to achieve his dreams. His story is a reminder that anything is possible if you are determined to succeed.

Reviews

"Bacia is a beautifully written and inspiring story. Christopher Menkhaus's journey from refugee to successful farmer is a testament to the power of the human spirit. This book is a must-read for anyone who is interested in the immigrant experience or in stories of overcoming adversity." - Khaled Hosseini, author of The Kite Runner

"Bacia is a powerful and moving story. Christopher Menkhaus's story is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope. This book is a must-read for anyone who wants to be inspired." - Nicholas Kristof, author of Half the Sky
