What is Business Ethics?

Business ethics is the study of ethical issues in business. It addresses questions such as:

- What is the purpose of business?
- What are the ethical responsibilities of businesses to their employees, customers, and the environment?
- How can businesses make ethical decisions?

Business ethics is a complex and challenging field, but it is essential for anyone who wants to make ethical decisions in business.

Ethical Decision Making

Ethical decision making is the process of making decisions that are consistent with ethical principles. It involves:

- Identifying the ethical issues involved in a decision
- Considering the different ethical principles that can be applied to the decision
- Weighing the different ethical principles and making a decision that is consistent with the most important principles

Ethical decision making can be difficult, but it is essential for anyone who wants to make ethical decisions in business.
