In addition to the above, here are some additional tips for using long descriptive keywords in alt attributes and creative SEO titles:

* Use specific keywords that are relevant to your content. For example, instead of using the alt attribute "Image of a doctor," you could use "Image of a doctor examining a patient." * Use keywords that are long and descriptive. This will help search engines understand the context of your image and rank it higher in search results. * Be creative with your SEO titles. Use titles that are both informative and attention-grabbing. This will help your content stand out in search results and attract more readers.
