

Halloween Bean by Rachel Dodman: A Spine-Tingling Adventure for Young Readers

Synopsis

Halloween Bean is a spooky and exciting adventure story for children aged 7-11. The story follows Bean, a young boy who loves Halloween more than anything. But this year, Halloween is different. Bean's beloved grandmother has passed away, and he is struggling to cope with her loss. On the night of Halloween, Bean decides to go trick-or-treating in her memory. But as he walks through the dark and foggy streets, he soon realizes that something is not right. Bean is being followed by a mysterious figure, and he can't shake the feeling that he is in danger.

As Bean tries to escape, he finds himself drawn to an old and abandoned house. The house is said to be haunted by the ghost of a young girl who was murdered many years ago. Bean knows that he should stay away, but he can't resist the urge to explore. Inside the house, Bean uncovers a dark secret that has been hidden for centuries. He learns that the ghost of the young girl is still trapped in the house, and that she is waiting for someone to help her find peace.
