

Moon Over Manifest: A Newbery Medal-Winning Adventure That Will Capture Your Heart

Moon Over Manifest by Clare Vanderpool is a coming-of-age story about Abilene Tucker, a 12-year-old girl who is sent to live with her eccentric uncle in Manifest, Kansas in 1936. The story is full of adventure, humor, and heart, and it explores important themes of family, friendship, and the power of imagination.

Abilene is a bright and curious girl, but she is also lonely and unhappy. Her parents are divorced, and she has no friends. When she is sent to live with her uncle, she is initially overwhelmed by the strangeness of her new surroundings. Manifest is a small town, and the people are different from anything she has ever known. But Abilene soon begins to adjust to her new life, and she makes friends with some of the local children.
