

My Mother, Our Memories, and a Journey Through the Rocky Mountains

A Memoir of Resilience, Love, and the Power of Nature

In this poignant and inspiring memoir, a daughter recounts her mother's journey through Alzheimer's and their transformative trek through the Rocky Mountains. As her mother's memory fades, the author finds solace and strength in the beauty and power of nature. Together, they embark on a physical and emotional pilgrimage that tests their limits and deepens their bond.

Through vivid descriptions of their adventures on the trail, the author explores the complex emotions of caregiving, loss, and the enduring power of love. She also shares practical tips and insights for others who are navigating the challenges of dementia. Ultimately, this is a story of resilience, hope, and the transformative power of nature to heal and inspire.
